

May 8, 1941.

Lt. Col. Alexander R. Davis,
Hdqts. 372nd Infantry(Rifle),
Office of the Regimental Commander,
Fort Dix, N. J.

Dear Colonel:

I am enclosing you tickets for the seats you and your Staff will occupy at the game. You will of course be met by a Reception Committee who will escort you to your seats in the Ball Park, but I thought in case some of the Officers did not stay right with you, it would simplify matters if they had tickets in their possession.

I would like to also tell you at this time I want one-half of the enlisted men to enter the first-base bleacher gate, and the other half to enter the third-base bleacher gate. They will be seated in the grandstand, but it will facilitate matters if they enter these gates instead of at the front of the building, where the crowd will no doubt be very great. The entire Band will be seated in Section "O", which would mean they would enter at the first base bleacher gate. There will of course be some one to take care of these details, but I thought it might be wise to tell you now, as it may be possible for you to inform the Officers in charge and help things to move more smoothly. One-half of the men will be seated in Section "A" in the grandstand with 25 Members of the American Legion and the Queen of Angels Band, the other half will be seated in Section "O" with 25 Members of the American Legion and the 372nd Band. I believe it might be wise to suggest to you now that they leave the first 4 rows in each of these sections vacant for the Bands and the Legion Members.

We are all looking forward with a great deal of pleasure of having you with us.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ